GAME PREVIEW

Your Newfoundland Regiment (4-2-0-0) wrap up their season opening eight game homestand this week at Mary Brown's Centre as they take on the Blainville-Boisbriand Armada (5-0-1-0) on Thursday and Friday night at 7pm. The Regiment bounced back in style this past weekend with a pair of wins over the Baie-Comeau Drakkar as captain Justin Larose led the offensive charge with nine points (3G, 6A) in the series, making him the league's leading scorer with 17 points in just six games played. Larose and the rest of the Newfoundland roster hope to continue that momentum against a tough Armada outfit before heading out on their first road trip of the season. Limited tickets for both games are available online at tickets.nlregiment.com or in person at the Mary Brown's Centre Box Office.

THREE KEYS TO THE SERIES

SECONDARY SCORING

Starting the season off with a red-hot powerplay is the opposite of a problem for the Regiment coaching staff, but in the event things cool down they just may need a contingency plan. It should serve as no surprise the top four Newfoundland scorers thru six games are the four forwards on the top PP unit and based on the Baie-Comeau series, there's no signs the man advantage will slow down anytime soon. Finding another gear at 5-on-5 and getting some input from all four forward lines could be key for this team to compete with the very best in the league.

KEEP IT TIGHT

The Armada remain unbeaten in regulation and have scored more goals than any other time while allowing fewer goals than the field in the process. It's no secret they are a tough test for any team across the Q, but how can the Regiment go toe to toe with them this week? Look no further than Blainville's last game where they fell 2-1 in OT on Sunday, their only loss of the season, to the Gatineau Olympiques. This was the first time the Armada failed to score 4+ goals so far in 2025-26 with the Olympiques penalty kill also a perfect 5/5 on the afternoon. Perhaps the playbook could emphasize the PK and a tight checking game against a high-flying Armada team.

COMPETITIVE CREASE

Newfoundland have consistently deployed a three man rotation to start the 2025-26 season with Mikus Vecvanags, Chase Anderson and Antoine Proulx each starting twice through the opening six games. Considering the trio only had a combined nine games played in the Q between them going into this season, it makes sense there is ongoing auditions for both the starting and backup positions in the crease. With encouraging signs from all three netminders to date, a little healthy competition among peers is the perfect way for the Regiment coaching staff to decide who they can lean on down the stretch — that audition ramps up this week with a potent Armada team coming to town.
