GAME PREVIEW

Your Newfoundland Regiment (7-6-0-0) return to home ice this weekend at Mary Brown's Centre following a four game road trip as they host the Saint John Sea Dogs (5-5-1-0) on Friday and Saturday night at 7pm. The Regiment headed home on a high note in their road trip finale this past Saturday night as they took down the Halifax Mooseheads 4-2 at the Scotiabank Centre. The win meant Newfoundland finished their trip 2-2-0-0 thanks to series splits with both the Mooseheads and the Charlottetown Islanders. Exactly .500 after the opening 12 games, Newfoundland have a nice opportunity to gain some momentum in the coming weeks with six straight on home ice on the schedule. Select tickets for both games are available online at tickets.nlregiment.com or in person at the Mary Brown's Centre Box Office.

THREE KEYS TO THE SERIES

SPECIAL TEAMS BATTLE

It's no secret every series can be decided by special teams but that matchup might have just that little more meaning with Newfoundland vs. Saint John. The Regiment have been a top five powerplay team in the Q from the very start of the season while the Sea Dogs have had their struggles on the man advantage. Conversely, it's Saint John who have had the superior penalty kill to date. Even strength offence is always a major positive but the matchup between a potent Regiment PP and the Sea Dogs solid PK will be crucial all weekend long.

ALL OVER ALEXIS

One of the most exciting aspects of having major junior hockey back on the rock is the opportunity to see the best up and coming players in Eastern Canada live every weekend. That sentiment of course rings true about Regiment first rounders Ben Veitch and Quinn Norman who continue to grow more confident at this level, but this week the reigning first overall pick in the Q draft also comes to town with Saint John. Make no mistake, the Sea Dogs have plenty of other dangerous skaters in their lineup, but Alexis Joseph will surely attract plenty of attention in his first visit to the Mary Brown's Centre.

EIGHT DUELS WITH THE DOGS

It may be early days in the season but Newfoundland and Saint John find themselves in a similar position heading into their first meeting of the 2025/26 campaign. Looking at the big picture, getting the best of the Sea Dogs across the year could be pivotal for the Regiment however as they'll see each other eight times in the next four months. No time like the present to start creating that gap with a fellow division rival, particularly on home ice in these next two contests.
