GAME PREVIEW

Your Newfoundland Regiment (22-16-1-1) return to the rock for some weeknight action as they welcome the Rimouski Oceanic (18-20-0-1) to town for the first time this season in a pair of meetings on Thursday and Friday night at the Mary Brown's Centre.

The Regiment finished up a quick three game road trip with a fine outing on Sunday afternoon at TD Station where they took down the Saint John Sea Dogs 4-3 in overtime thanks in large part to a Marek Danicek hat-trick. 2-1-0-0 in their weekend away, Newfoundland sit in third place in the Eastern Conference heading into Thursday evening.

Rimouski, some five spots below the Regiment in eight in the East, will have more than enough motivation during their travels to Newfoundland as they scratch and claw for a postseason spot down the stretch. Luckily for the Regiment, the standings in the East are quite congested with just two points separating the team from the third place Cape Breton Eagles. A strong series right here on home ice could kickstart the back half of their campaign as Newfoundland search to secure a postseason berth and in a perfect world home ice advantage in their inaugural season.

In their first ever meeting with the Oceanic, it's important the Regiment ignore the standings and stick to the task at hand: locking up a postseason spot in their inaugural season.

Puck drops at 7pm both Thursday and Friday and limited tickets for this series and the rest of the home games in the new year are available online at tickets.nlregiment.com or in person at the Mary Brown's Centre Box Office.

THREE KEYS TO THE SERIES

SQUAD SECURED

Following the QMHL trade deadline, this version of the Regiment is the same version fans will see for the remainder of the regular season as transactions are now put on hold. Adding some veteran experience in all positions, Newfoundland now look an even more well rounded team than the one who impressed in several stretches before the holiday break. Time for the key contributors old and new to do exactly that in the final third of the campaign.

DRIVE FOR FIVE

Starting to consistently hover above the .500 mark at this stage of the season, Newfoundland have their recent play at home to thank for that as they've skated away with both points in five straight in this building. Extending that streak for another contest or two will ensure this building is not one any potential playoff opponent looks forward to visiting this spring.

PK PROBLEMS

Finding their stride on the penalty kill could be the one X-factor that sees this young Regiment team find that next level in 2026. While they continue to thrive on special teams with the man advantage, costly penalties have been a thorn in the side for this group to date. Rectify that issue and home ice advantage for the postseason becomes a much more attainable goal.
