GAME PREVIEW

Your Newfoundland Regiment (36-21-2-1) welcome back the Moncton Wildcats (46-10-2-2) for the first time since opening weekend in a series with serious postseason implications on both sides. After closing out a six game road trip on Sunday evening in a 4-1 win over the Rouyn-Noranda Huskies, the Regiment stay right here on home ice to wrap up the regular season with four in a row in St. John's.

A matchup between second and third in the Eastern Conference, both Moncton and Newfoundland have lots left to decide before the postseason gets underway. The Wildcats trail the Chicoutimi Saguenéens by one point for top spot in the league while Newfoundland look to collect a couple more points to hold off the Charlottetown Islanders and lockdown that third spot.

Head-to-head the home team has taken every meeting to date between those two sides so far this season. Following a sweep over the defending champs to kickstart their inaugural campaign, the Regiment have struggled at the Avenir Centre where the Wildcats took four wins from four matchups. No better test ahead of the playoffs than a pair of home games against one of the top junior teams in the country.

Puck drops at 7pm on Saturday and 4pm on Sunday with very limited single tickets for this series and the rest of the home games in the regular season still available online at tickets.nlregiment.com or in person at the Mary Brown's Centre Box Office.

THREE KEYS TO THE SERIES

MORE MBC MAGIC

Taking down the defending champs twice on opening weekend was a dream start to life back in the QMJHL for local hockey fans way back on September 18 and 19. Consider the fact Moncton have lost in regulation just eight times total since and the improbability of the occasion becomes that little bit clearer. Neither roster looks exactly as it did some six months ago but you can be sure the Regiment will hope to send the crowd home happy once again this time around with the Wildcats.

BATTLE BETWEEN THE PIPES

Neither Louis-Antoine Denault (NFL) or Rudy Guimond (MON) played in that season opening series and both netminders have been serious difference makers for their respective sides since. While Guimond is the league leader in nearly every statistical goaltending category, Denault has been dynamite since joining Newfoundland at the trade deadline, ranking top eight in wins, save percentage and goals against average. Keep an eye on these two during the three stars ceremony if their teams come out on top.

DENY DESNOYERS

On the topic of absentees from the September 18/19 meetings on the rock, it's hard to omit Caleb Desnoyer's name as far as difference makers who were absent that weekend. The 4th overall pick by the Utah Mammoth in the 2025 NHL Entry Draft, it will be important to the success of the Regiment his skills aren't put on display too often across Saturday and Sunday.net and the point should pile up down the stretch.
