GAME PREVIEW

Your Halifax Mooseheads are ready for a rematch this afternoon against the Charlottetown Islanders after the two clubs clashed last night in PEI. Halifax stunned the home team with four consecutive goals in the third period to erase a 2-0 deficit and record a huge 4-2 victory. The Herd are back on home ice to host Kids Day in Moose Country with lots of fun on tap for the young fans in attendance. This is the second time that Halifax and Charlottetown have played back-to-back games this season with the teams splitting the opening two games of the year back on September 19th and 20th. This time, the Moose are looking for the sweep.

SURPRISE CONTENDERS

While we are still early in the season, it is now nearing the middle of November and both the Mooseheads and Islanders have taken many by surprise with equally impressive performances. They have been among the Eastern Conference leaders all season, with Charlottetown at the top of the pack pretty much from the get-go. Now, the obvious favourite is Chicoutimi and the Sags are starting to look more like the juggernaut team we expected. Either way, it's been a terrific start for the two Maritime rivals and they know that every matchup against one another is an important two points. Halifax is now just three points behind first place Charlottetown.

ROAD WRAP

It's been 15 days since we last saw the Herd here on home ice after the trip away from Scotiabank Centre officially wrapped up last night in PEI. Overall, it was a successful roadie, even if there were a couple of close disappointments that could have gone the other way. It all started with two big upset victories over Moncton and then Blainville-Boisbriand. Halifax dropped an OT decision in Rouyn-Noranda and nearly made it to extra time in Val d'Or last Saturday but the Foreurs struck for a late regulation goal to edge the Moose. November will also see plenty of road action as the Canadian Olympic Curling Trials are set to take over Scotiabank Centre for the majority of the month.

NOSE FOR THE NET

Secondary scoring has been an important asset this season for the Moose and they are getting contributions from up and down the lineup including last night's victory. The Islanders may want to pay close attention to a certain pair who have started to factor into the score-sheet on a nightly basis. Liam Kilfoil has seemed to find his stride and had picked up at least a point in seven consecutive games – scoring 11 points during that span prior to being held off the scoresheet last night. Oleg Kulebiakin is lighting the lamp at will right now with goals in 12-of-17 games played this season and leads the team in scoring overall.
