FEW LIKE FUDER

JAXON FUDER BRINGS ENERGY, EXPERIENCE TO OIL KINGS ROSTER

Edmonton Oil Kings forward Jaxon Fuder brings a different element to the roster that few players do.

The 19-year-old product of Cold Lake, Alta. was acquired by the Oil Kings from the Red Deer Rebels after the Christmas Break in December and brings an exciting blend of physicality, energy, and skill to the Oil Kings forward group. Since his addition to the club, Fuder has played 13 games, scoring once and adding seven assists, including six points in his last six games. He also had a four-assist game on Tuesday, February 24 against Medicine Hat.

Prior to his time with the Edmonton Oil Kings, Fuder was signed by the Rebels in October of 2024 from the BCHL after 76 games in that league. With the Rebels, Fuder would play 73 games and score 18 goals along with 32 assists for 50 points.

This past fall, Fuder attended Dallas Stars Training Camp as an undrafted free agent and would go on to get signed to an entry level contract in September. As a player not drafted in the WHL or NHL, Fuder has shown the results of hard work and determination.

FOUR FOR FUDER!

Jaxon Fuder's four-assist night was the 14th time in Oil Kings history that a player earned four assists in a single game. He is also just the 12th different player to reach the feat. Fuder and Lukas Sawchyn are the only Oil Kings to hit that mark this season.
