SCOUTING REPORT

WENATCHEE WILD

Tonight marks the second ever meeting in WHL history between the Cougars and the Wenatchee Wild. Wenatchee, formerly known as the Winnipeg ICE, made it all the way to the league final, ultimately falling to the Seattle Thunderbirds.

The Wild currently hold a 1-4-1-0 record on the young 2023-2024 season. Tonight's meeting with the Cougars is the second of five meetings in the season series. The Cougars will visit Wenatchee for the first time on December 15, 2023.

PLAYER TO WATCH

#31 DANIEL HAUSER

Wild goaltender Daniel Hauser is coming off a magnificent 2022-2023 season. Hauser backboned the Winnipeg ICE to an Eastern Conference banner, sporting an impressive 37-4-1 record, along with a .917 save percentage and a 2.28 goals against average. Hauser was named to the Eastern Conference First All Star Team.

ABOUT LAST NIGHT

COUGARS WIN 5TH STRAIGHT GAME AND IMPROVE TO 6-1

In a thrilling game that saw a remarkable third-period surge, the Prince George Cougars clawed their way back from behind to defeat the Wenatchee Wild 6-4. The victory extends their winning streak to five games and solidifies their position at the top of the WHL standings with a record of 6-1-0-0.

The Cougars' offence was firing on all cylinders, with Zac Funk leading the charge and racking up an impressive five points (2 goals, 3 assists) in the memorable win. Terik Parascak continued to shine, adding two goals to his season tally, now at an impressive 12.

After tonight's game, the Cougars wrap up their five game home-stand on Wednesday, October 11th against the Swift Current Broncos.

COUGARS TO HOST COMMUNITY HEROES WEEKEND ON OCTOBER 21-22

The Prince George Cougars are thrilled to unveil their upcoming Community Heroes weekend, taking place on Saturday, October 21st, against the Kamloops Blazers and Sunday, October 22nd, against the Medicine Hat Tigers.

The Community Heroes weekend aims to honour and celebrate the dedicated individuals who selflessly serve our community, including front-line workers, emergency services personnel, victim support advocates, Northern Health professionals, and all those who contribute to the well-being of our region.

The Cougars have partnered with local foundations and businesses to make this weekend one of the most exciting of the season. The Prince George Community Foundation and The Spirit of the North Foundation have been instrumental in planning and organizing the weekend's events. Coastal GasLink, Wood Wheaton, and Canadian Tire have all stepped up to help put on an incredible event while providing tickets for community hero groups to come down and enjoy the games. The Prince George Cougars will be investing $50,000 to provide seats for our Community Heroes during this special weekend.

Saturday night's game against the Blazers will feature a poignant pre-game ceremony to acknowledge and pay tribute to our Community Heroes. This event is proudly sponsored by Coastal GasLink, whose commitment to our community aligns perfectly with this initiative.

Sunday's game against the Tigers promises a memorable experience, with not only a pre-game ceremony celebrating our Community Heroes but also the launch of the first Mega 50/50 jackpot of the season. Wood Wheaton Supercentre is generously offering a guaranteed jackpot of $50,000. The proceeds from this 50/50 draw will be directed toward the Prince George Community Foundation in support of RCMP Victim Services, the Prince George Firefighters Society, and the Spirit of the North Healthcare Foundation.
