Note: Shootouts became part of the WHL during the 2005-2006 season. The Pats had their first shootout on October 15, 2005 vs. Prince Albert (W, 4-3).

David Reekie got the win in net, while Matt Robinson got the deciding goal in the shootout.

ARENA HISTORY

Regina Arena

Was located on the West side of Robinson Street, between 14th and 15th Avenue, north of the fire hall. Open in 1910, the ice was 190' by 110'. The seating capacity was approximately 2,000. There were four rows of seats around the entire ice surface, the south end where the ice was met by the wall.

The Pats played in the Arena for the first 2 seasons of their existence. They moved into the Stadium for the 1919-20 season (which started Jan. 12, 1920).

First game: December 21, 1917, Regina Patricias 5, Regina Victorias 2

Last game: March 10, 1919, Regina Patricias 3, Winnipeg Lutherans 1

Regina Stadium/Exhibition Stadium/Queen City Gardens

Was completed in 1919. The rink was officially open on Thursday December 4, 1919, and nearly 3,000 spectators were present. The first event was a program of figure skaters: Anna Munkin, Lillian Egan and Henry Bronk. They were followed by open skating until 10:00 pm. The first hockey game played at the Stadium was between the Regina Vics and Moose Jaw Maple Leafs in the Senior League home opener at 8:30 pm. Reserved seats cost $1.00 or 75¢ with the rush seating at 50¢.

August 13, 1938, a group called Queen City Gardens Limited with President Jack Hamilton was created and decided to shelve the idea of a new downtown rink and approached the Regina Exhibition Board regarding leasing the Stadium rink. They ordered a new ice plant from the Canadian Ice Machine Company on October 20 of the same year. The group also brought in ice maker Frank Bauman of Minneapolis. The ice plant was finished by the end of November in time for the opening game of the Saskatchewan Senior Hockey League. They also repaired, cleaned up and painted the rink. The Stadium name was changed to the Queen City Gardens.

Queen City Gardens name lasted until 1949 when the name changed to Regina Exhibition Stadium.

First game: January 12, 1920, Regina Victorias 7, Regina Patricias 5

Last game (as home rink): March 16, 1977, Regina Pats 8, Saskatoon Blades 6. Attendance 1,564

Last game (used due to schedule issue at the Agridome): March 23, 1990, Regina Pats 4, Swift Current Broncos 3 OT. Attendance 2,214

Regina Agridome/Brandt Centre

The Regina Agridome broke ground in 1975 and was finally completed in time for the 1977-78 Regina Pats season. The Rink officially opened October 2, 1977, at a cost of $7.7 million. Around 4,200 people were at the opening game. Tickets for the opening game at the Agridome were $3.50 for adults, $2.50 for Students and Seniors and Children could get in for $1.50.

Brandt Industries bought naming rights for the Agridome in July of 2005 and the name was changed to the Brandt Centre. The 2017-18 season marked the 40th year that the Pats have played at this arena.

First game: October 2, 1977, Regina Pats 8, Saskatoon Blades 4. Attendance 4,200

KEVIN SHAW

Kevin Shaw’s moniker is THE Blueliner and when it comes to Pats facts and trivia there is no better or more informed source. His interest in the blue and white (and red) began in 1979 when he attended games with his dad (with the most appropriate name Pat) and his mom Laura where they sat in Section R, today’s section 118. As a youth, he took over from his mom keeping detailed stats for each home game - a true treasure trove of all that is Pats was born.

When he was about 16, he saw a list published in a Pats program that consisted of all-time Pats skaters and goaltenders who had played 30 or more games. That was the catalyst leading to more and then, even more, Pats facts and figures.

Then Kevin met Ron “Scoreboard” Johnston who was the go-to for all stats and Ron became his inspiration to go forward to what is now thousands (not joking) of pages of now digitized history and a collection of numerous artifacts. Without history we are destined to obscurity - Kevin is the reason why the Regina Pats lore will be there to inspire future generations eager to learn more about this fabulous franchise and celebrate its hockey legends - all made possible by the various owners, fans, and local media.
