PLAYER PROFILE

55 EPHRAM MCNUTT

Ephram McNutt is in his first full season with the Regina Pats and has collected two assists through his first three games.

The Ponoka County, Alta., product was acquired from the Prince George Cougars on December 8, 2024, in exchange for Corbin Vaughan. Last season, the steady right-shot defenceman posted a career-high 29 points (6G-23A) in 52 games, including 19 points after joining the Pats.

Recognized for his reliable two-way game and leadership off the ice, McNutt was named the 83rd captain in franchise history on September 18.

The 20-year-old was born in Yellowknife and grew up in several smaller Northwest Territories communities, including Inuvik and Tuktoyaktuk, where his mother, Holly, served with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. His family now resides in Red Deer, Alta., while McNutt has also been working toward his pilot's license at a flight school in Lacombe. He already has more than 35 solo flight hours in aircraft such as the Cessna 172 and Piper Cherokee.

SCOUTING REPORT

EDMONTON OIL KINGS

The Edmonton Oil Kings finished seventh in the Eastern Conference and third in the Central Division last season, posting a 37-27-2-2 record for 78 points. In the first round of the playoffs, they pushed the Prince Albert Raiders — the eventual Eastern Division champions — to a decisive Game 7, before falling 5-0.

That series marked the Oil Kings' first playoff appearance since 2022, when they went 16-3 in the postseason en route to capturing their third league championship since 2012.

The Oil Kings are off to a 2-1-0 start to the 2025-26 season but are coming off a 6-3 loss to the Calgary Hitmen. The roster features five NHL-drafted players, highlighted by Blake Fiddler, who was selected 36th overall by the Seattle Kraken last summer.

Forward Luke Powell currently leads the team in scoring with four points (3G-1A) through three games.

BLAKE FIDDLER

Edmonton Oil Kings defenceman Blake Fiddler had a year to remember in 2025. The 6-foot-5, 212-pound right-shot blueliner put together a breakout season, recording a career-high 33 points (10G-23A) in 64 games. His steady play and ability to move the puck quickly up ice made him one of the top young defenders in the WHL last season.

Fiddler's performance didn't go unnoticed. The Frisco, Texas product earned an invitation to the U.S. National Junior Team Selection Camp and later helped the United States capture a bronze medal at the 2025 IIHF World U18 Championship. His strong year culminated in being selected 36th overall by the Seattle Kraken in the 2025 NHL Draft, making him Edmonton's highest-drafted player.

Hockey runs in the family for Fiddler. His father, Vernon Fiddler, was a standout forward in the WHL with the Kelowna Rockets and Medicine Hat Tigers before embarking on a lengthy NHL career. From 2002-2017, Vernon suited up in more than 850 NHL games, carving out a reputation as a dependable two-way centerman and leader.
