PLAYER PROFILE

3 JONAS KOHN

18-year-old rookie Jonas Kohn has quickly carved out an important role on the Regina Pats blue line, earning trust in shutdown situations and becoming a regular on the penalty kill. Known for his size and edge, Kohn brings a physical presence every night, delivering punishing hits while helping stabilize the defensive core.

The only American on the Pats roster, Kohn hails from Stillwater, Minnesota. The 6-foot-3, 206-pound left-shot defenceman arrived in Regina as a free agent invite to training camp with no guaranteed spot. Through a strong showing in preseason action, Kohn earned a spot, securing his place for his WHL rookie season.

Since then, Kohn has embraced his role, appearing in 26 games and recording two assists, while also leading the club in penalty minutes (31)—a reflection of his physical, hard-to-play-against style. His willingness to engage and defend teammates has made him a dependable option in high-pressure moments.

Prior to joining the Pats, Kohn played at Stillwater High School, where he produced 31 points (5G-26A) in 30 games last season. Kohn's combination of size, toughness, and growing confidence makes him a key piece of Regina's blue line both now and moving forward.

SCOUTING REPORT

PRINCE ALBERT RAIDERS

The Prince Albert Raiders arrive in Regina as one of the WHL's most complete and consistent teams, continuing the momentum built during a strong 2024-25 campaign. Last season, the Raiders captured the East Division title and finished second in the Eastern Conference with a 39-23-5-1 record (84 points). They pushed past the Edmonton Oil Kings in a seven-game first-round series before seeing their playoff run end in round two against Medicine Hat.

That success has carried over into this season in a big way. Through 30 games, Prince Albert sits first in the Eastern Conference with an impressive 22-4-4-0 record and 48 points. The Raiders enter tonight's matchup riding a five-game winning streak, most recently edging the Saskatoon Blades 5-4 on Sunday.

Offensively, Prince Albert boasts strong balance throughout its lineup, with five players already in double digits in goals. San Jose Sharks prospect Max Heise leads the Raiders with 14 goals, while 20-year-old forward Aiden Oiring tops the team in scoring with 32 points.

The Club features one of the WHL's top netminders in Michal Orsulak, a 2026 NHL Draft prospect who currently leads the league in goals-against average (2.34) and ranks eighth in save percentage (.908).

PLAYER TO WATCH

7 JUSTICE CHRISTENSEN

Prince Albert Raiders captain Justice Christensen is proof that the WHL isn't only built on draft status — it's built on determination, development, and edge. Undrafted in the 2020 WHL Prospects Draft, Christensen has carved out an impressive career, growing into one of the league's most reliable blueliners.

The Red Deer, Alta. native has produced 103 points over the past three seasons, including 41 goals, remarkable numbers for a defenceman known just as much for his bite as his skill. Despite standing 5-foot-9 and 191 pounds, Christensen plays a fearless, hard-nosed game, regularly engaging physically while still contributing offensively at a high level.

Nicknamed "Juice," Christensen was named the 49th captain in Raiders history last season and responded with the best campaign of his WHL career. He set personal highs with 22 goals and 46 points in 68 games, earning recognition beyond the WHL with an invitation to Detroit Red Wings training camp.

He has committed to the University of Nebraska-Omaha, where he will join the Mavericks for the 2026-27 NCAA season, further solidifying a journey defined by grit, growth, and relentless drive.
