PLAYER PROFILE

38 DAYTON DESCHAMPS

Night after night, Dayton Deschamps brings an edge to the Regina Pats blue line.

The Saskatoon product plays the game with energy and bite, using his physicality and relentless compete level to spark the Pats whenever momentum is needed. Whether it's finishing a check, winning a puck battle, or setting the tone defensively, Deschamps makes his presence felt every shift.

Now in his sophomore WHL season, the 5-foot-11, 190-pound left-shot defenceman has recorded one goal and three assists in 35 games, while continuing to grow into a dependable, hard-nosed defender. His impact goes beyond the scoresheet, as his intensity and willingness to do the dirty work provide a steady lift for his teammates.

Deschamps was acquired by Regina from his hometown Saskatoon Blades on December 31, 2023, in a deal that also included Zach Moore. As a rookie last season, he appeared in 56 games with the Pats, contributing seven points (4G-3A).

Before joining the WHL ranks, Deschamps developed with the Saskatoon Blazers U18 AAA program from 2022-2024, helping the Blazers capture back-to-back Saskatchewan Male AAA Hockey League championships.

SCOUTING REPORT

SASKATOON BLADES

The Saskatoon Blades enter play sitting sixth in the WHL Eastern Conference with 54 points, owning a 25-21-3-1 record on the season. They remain firmly in the playoff hunt, positioned just three points back of the Brandon Wheat Kings for fifth place and five points behind the Calgary Hitmen, who currently sit fourth.

The Blades are looking to bounce back after a challenging stretch. Saskatoon is coming off a 7-1 loss to the Calgary Hitmen on Tuesday at SaskTel Centre and has dropped its last two games, as well as five of its past six overall.

Last season, Saskatoon finished the 2024-25 campaign with a 37-23-4-4 record, collecting 82 points and also finishing sixth in the Eastern Conference. While their postseason run ended in a first-round sweep at the hands of Calgary, the Blades continue to be one of the WHL's most consistent franchises. They have now posted eight straight above-.500 seasons and have qualified for the playoffs in five consecutive seasons in which the postseason has been held.

Offensively, the Blades are led by Edmonton Oilers prospect David Lewandowski, who paces the team in scoring with 46 points in 40 games. Rowan Calvert provides the finishing touch up front, leading Saskatoon with 23 goals and 12 power play goals.

PLAYER TO WATCH

11 DAVID LEWANDOWSKI

David Lewandowski's rise in the WHL has been fast — and impossible to ignore.

Selected by the Edmonton Oilers in the fourth round of the 2025 NHL Draft (#117 overall), the Düsseldorf, Germany native has quickly established himself as one of the Saskatoon Blades' most dynamic forwards. Lewandowski joined the Blades last season and made an immediate impact, finishing with 39 points (15G-24A) in 52 games while showcasing his offensive instincts and playmaking ability.

Now in his second WHL campaign, the 18-year-old has taken another step forward. Lewandowski is enjoying a career-best season, posting 46 points (12G-34A) in just 40 games, cementing himself as a key offensive driver in Saskatoon's lineup.

His strong play at the WHL level has also earned him international opportunities. Lewandowski has represented Germany at the IIHF World Junior Championship in both 2025 and 2026, gaining valuable experience against the world's top young talent. At the most recent tournament, he contributed four points (1G-3A) in five games, playing an important role for Germany on the international stage.

Lewandowski continues to trend upward — and remains a prospect to watch closely within the Edmonton Oilers system.
