PLAYER PROFILE

20 CONNOR BEAR

Connor Bear is a Regina Pats forward who proudly represents Ochapowace First Nation, serving as both a competitor on the ice and a role model within the Indigenous community.

Bear joined the Pats ahead of the 2024-25 season after being acquired in a trade from the Calgary Hitmen. In his first season with Regina, he appeared in 57 games, recording 11 points (5G-6A) while providing reliable depth and a strong work ethic in the Pats lineup.

The current season has tested Bear's resilience. After playing five games to open the year, he was sidelined for nearly two months due to a health condition. His return to the lineup in December highlighted his perseverance, and he has since recorded four points (1G-3A) in 18 games as he continues to contribute and build momentum.

Beyond the statistics, Bear's journey carries greater significance. As a proud Indigenous athlete competing at the WHL level, he serves as a positive role model for Indigenous youth, demonstrating the importance of determination, perseverance, and pride in one's identity. His presence on Indigenous Celebration Night underscores the ongoing commitment to Truth and Reconciliation and the impact representation can have both on and off the ice.

SCOUTING REPORT

CALGARY HITMEN

The Calgary Hitmen roll into tonight's matchup playing some of their best hockey of the season, sitting fourth in the Eastern Conference standings with 63 points and coming off an exciting 5-4 win over the Brandon Wheat Kings on Friday.

Calgary has been red-hot away from home, closing out a perfect 3-0 Eastern Division road trip. The stretch featured a dominant 7-1 victory in Saskatoon, followed by back-to-back 5-4 wins in Prince Albert and Brandon, showcasing both their offensive depth and ability to grind out tight games late.

The Hitmen lineup is bolstered by three NHL-drafted players in Axel Hertig, Blake Vanek, and Kale Dach, giving the group a strong mix of skill, size, and pro-level experience. Up front, Julien Maze has been the engine, leading Calgary with 28 goals and 58 points on the season.

Between the pipes, 17-year-old Eric Tu continues to impress. The young netminder ranks fifth in the WHL in goals-against average (2.64) and eighth in save percentage (.905), giving the Hitmen steady goaltending as they push for home-ice advantage down the stretch.

PLAYER TO WATCH

6 AXEL HERTIG

Calgary Hitmen defenceman Alex Hertig has steadily grown into one of the WHL's most dependable blue-liners—and the Calgary Flames have had a front-row seat the entire way.

A seventh-round selection (No. 206 overall) by the Flames in the 2023 NHL Draft, Hertig is now wearing the "C" as Hitmen captain and continuing to round out his pro-style game. The 6-foot-5, 216-pound left shot has posted 14 points (5G-9A) in 44 games this season, while carrying a strong +16 rating, reflecting his impact at both ends of the ice. That follows a productive 2024-25 campaign where he recorded 16 points (5G-11A) in 55 games with an impressive +39 rating, before adding three points (1G-2A) in 11 playoff games and finishing the postseason at +4.

Before making the move to North America, Hertig developed in Sweden with Rögle BK J20 in the J20 Nationell, where he logged 11 points (3G-8A) in 27 games during the 2022-23 season. Hailing from Höganäs, Sweden, Hertig blends size, reach, and poise with a steadily improving offensive touch—traits that have made him a cornerstone of the Hitmen blue line and a long-term project the Flames continue to monitor closely.
