PLAYER PROFILE

19 MADDUX SCHULTZ

Maddox Schultz continues to prove that age is just a number.

The 15-year-old Regina product put together a performance for the ages on Wednesday night, scoring the tying goal with just 18 seconds remaining in regulation before burying the overtime winner to lift the Regina Pats to a thrilling 7-6 victory over the Saskatoon Blades. To cap it off, Schultz completed the hat trick — becoming the youngest player in franchise history to record three goals in a game.

The recent surge is no fluke. Schultz now has five goals and five assists for 10 points over his last eight games, showcasing his growing confidence. Through 20 WHL games this season, the 15-year-old has compiled 16 points (7G-9A), continuing to adjust seamlessly to major junior hockey.

And when he's not starring at the WHL level, Schultz has been nothing short of dominant with the Regina Pat Canadians at the Sask U18 AAA level. In just 21 games, he has piled up 30 goals and 30 assists for 60 points — an eye-popping 2.86 points per game, the highest rate in the league.

SCOUTING REPORT

MOOSE JAW WARRIORS

The Moose Jaw Warriors are coming off a 4-3 overtime loss to the Brandon Wheat Kings on Tuesday. That lone point keeps them in a tight position in the East, sitting at 19-26-5-2 with 45 points, good for seventh in the Eastern Conference, but only three points ahead of Red Deer and four in front of Regina heading into tonight's game.

Unfortunately for the Warriors, recent form hasn't been kind. Moose Jaw has dropped its last three games, including losses to Edmonton, Red Deer and Brandon, and has gone 2-4-3 in their last nine outings, a stretch.

Despite the struggles, the Warriors still lean on their top offensive talent to spark production. Landen McFadden has been the club's most consistent scorer, tallying 57 points (24 goals, 33 assists) in 51 games, leading Moose Jaw in offensive output. Meanwhile, 20-year-old forward Pavel McKenzie has been his top setup man and second-leading point producer — posting 54 points (16 goals, 38 assists) in 52 games this season.

PLAYER TO WATCH

8 COLT CARTER

At just 16 years old, Colt Carter is already turning heads with the Moose Jaw Warriors.

The Drayton Valley, AB product was acquired as a key piece in the Brayden Yager trade after being selected by Lethbridge in the sixth round just months earlier. Since arriving in Moose Jaw, the University of Denver NCAA Division I commit has made an immediate impact on the Warriors' blue line.

Carter has recorded 32 points (7G-25A) in 45 games this season, ranking fourth among all 2009-born players in WHL scoring. His offensive instincts and poise with the puck have stood out, especially for a first-year defenceman.

Prior to joining the WHL, Carter led all AEHL U18 defencemen with 44 points last season and was named a First Team All-Star with the St. Albert Raiders U18 AAA. Internationally, he also helped Canada Red capture gold at the 2025 U17 World Challenge.

Still just 16, Carter has quickly established himself as an important piece of Moose Jaw's present — and future — on the back end.
