PLAYER PROFILE

11 DAYCE DERKATCH

Regina Pats forward Dayce Derkatch continues to make an impact for his hometown club through his dependable work on the penalty kill. With one assist through nine games this season, the Regina product provides valuable support beyond the scoresheet, helping the Pats shut down opposing power plays.

Derkatch recorded 13 points (4G-9A) and 12 penalty minutes in 66 games with Regina last season. Before joining the Pats, he spent the 2024-25 campaign with the Prince Albert Raiders, collecting eight points (3G-5A) in 55 contests.

Prior to his WHL career, Derkatch developed close to home with the Regina Pat Canadians, posting 74 points (29G-45A) in 99 games from 2022-24. His progression through Regina's minor hockey system to the Pats has given him the opportunity to continue representing his hometown at the major junior level.

SCOUTING REPORT

SEATTLE THUNDERBIRDS

The Seattle Thunderbirds visit the Brandt Centre on Wednesday to take on the Regina Pats, entering the week with a 3-4-0-1 record through eight games.

Seattle finished seventh in the Western Conference last season with a 31-27-6-4 record and 72 points before falling to the second-place Penticton Vees in five games in the opening round of the playoffs. The 2023 WHL champions have reached the postseason in each of the last two seasons and four of the last five, missing the playoffs just once since 2012-13, in 2023-24.

Seattle's roster features five NHL prospects: Noah Kosick (Anaheim Ducks), Matthew Gard (Philadelphia Flyers), Jonas Kemps (Florida Panthers), Reko Alanko and goaltender Marek Sklenička (Philadelphia Flyers).

Kosick leads the team in scoring with 10 points (4G-6A) in eight games this season while 2027 NHL Draft top prospect Brock England is second with eight points (3G-5A) in eight games.

PLAYER TO WATCH

16 BROCK ENGLAND

Seattle Thunderbirds forward Brock England is a player to watch ahead of the 2027 NHL Draft, where he is projected to be a first-round selection. The 17-year-old centre from Red Deer, Alta., has opened this season with eight points (3G-5A) in eight games after recording 51 points (21G-30A) in 64 contests as a 16-year-old. Standing 5-foot-11 and weighing 175 pounds, England led all 2009-born WHL skaters in goals and points during his first full season. His 21 goals were the most by a 16-year-old Thunderbirds rookie since Patrick Marleau scored 32 in 1995-96.

England has also enjoyed success internationally, winning gold at both the 2025 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge and the 2026 Hlinka Gretzky Cup. He collected seven points in five games at the U17 tournament before contributing four goals and five points in five games at the Hlinka Gretzky Cup, including two goals in Canada's 8-1 gold-medal victory over the United States.
