GAME NOTES - REGULAR SEASON GAME 14

WENATCHEE WILD

(3-8-1-1 - 8 pts || 12th, Western Conference)

PORTLAND WINTERHAWKS

(9-7-0-0 - 18 pts || 6th, Western Conference)

November 7, 2025 || 7:00 p.m. || Town Toyota Center || Wenatchee, WA
Wild/ICE All-Time Record vs. Portland: 20-23-4-0 (1 tie)

IN A NUTSHELL:

Wenatchee faces off against the Winterhawks for the first time this season, with two more matchups right around the corner.

THE SCENE-SETTER:

The Wild went for their first back-to-back wins of the season last Sunday, but Kamloops staved off a late comeback bid for a 6-2 win at Town Toyota Center. Ryan Michael scored his first goal of the year at 13:14 of the first period, and the Blazers went to the dressing room with a 2-0 lead thanks to Nathan Behm's power play goal with 1:09 remaining in the period. J.P. Hurlbert and Tommy Lafreniere scored 31 seconds apart in the second period to double the lead, before Zane Saab pitched a backhand chance into the net with 6:50 remaining in the period to trim the deficit to 4-1. Rui Han raced around the back of the net and ripped a shot past Logan Edmonstone just 10 seconds out of the break to push the lead back to two goals, but Behm and Jordan Keller scored later in the third to reinflate the lead. Behm finished with two goals and an assist, and Edmonstone wrapped up with 31 saves, while Cal Conway made 35 saves in the loss. Kamloops capitalized on one of its five power play chances while holding Wenatchee scoreless on its four power plays, but the Wild won their first battle at the faceoff dot this season, outdueling their visitors 35-33 on faceoffs.

KNOW YOUR FOE:

Portland got off to a strong start in Wednesday's home game against the Prince George Cougars, but a last-second first-period goal started a flood of scoring in the Cougars' 6-2 win at Veterans Memorial Coliseum. After Jett Lajoie's goal at 4:25 of the first, but Reed Brown and Alex Weiermair scored to grab the lead for the Winterhawks. Carson Carels's goal with two seconds to go in the first period tied the game, and was the first of five unanswered goals for the Cougars. Terik Parascak and Dmitri Yakutsenak each wrapped up the night with a goal and two assists in Prince George's victory. Ondrej Stebetak has been the Winterhawks' rock in net, leading the league with more than 800 minutes and ranking second in both wins and losses. Leads have been tough to take away from this group - they have only scored first in six of their 16 games, but have won all six of those. Portland's -12 scoring margin in the second period ranks second-lowest in the league, but its +9 margin in the third is the WHL's third-best.

A GRADE "A" CHANCE:

Boston Tait is absent after being called to join Canada's best Under-17 players as part of the World Under-17 Hockey Challenge in Truro, Nova Scotia. The Canada Red alternate captain is one of 19 WHL players to be chosen for the tournament. The 44 players picked to represent Canada came from a pool of 80 players, including Tait, who earned invitations to Canada's U17 Program of Excellence summer camp. Tait had assists in both of Canada's pool-play games Sunday against Finland and Tuesday against the United States, and was one of seven players on his team to post more than one point in Canada's pool-play action. Thursday, Tait had four more points in Canada Red's 8-3 quarterfinal win against the Swedes.

KILLER INSTINCT:

The Wild penalty kill has climbed to the top of the WHL leaderboard at 87.9 percent, completing 30 of its last 33 kills - the club has gone eight straight games without giving up multiple power play goals.

A RUI OF SUNSHINE:

Rui Han now holds the team's longest point streak of the season, thanks to his face-and-fire tally at the start of the third period on Sunday. He has notched points in all four games since returning from his eight-game stint on the injury list, and he is the only Wild player yet this season to notch a point in four straight games.

TOLL ROAD TO THE NET:

For the Wild, few players have been as consistent recently at setting up the offense than defenseman Josh Toll - though the quest continues for his first WHL goal, he has surpassed Mason Kraft for the most assists on the team with nine, picking up one in each game last weekend. He holds a three-game point streak of his own heading into this weekend.

THIRD TIME'S THE CHARM:

The Wild organization has its eye on a return to the Western Hockey League playoffs in the Wenatchee Valley's third WHL season, after a near miss a year ago. Wenatchee closed out 2024-25 with a 23-36-8-1 record, taking ninth in the 11-team Western Conference, and did so following a second half with razor-thin margins – in their last 30 games, the Wild dropped 14 games by only a one- or two-goal margin, and went to overtime in five of six games at the middle of February. The team that caught them did so after catching fire in their second half – Seattle claimed the final playoff spot with 18 wins after January 10, including wins in six of their last eight games.

LET'S GO CAMPING:

Current Wenatchee player Blake Vanek earned a spot on the Ottawa Senators' training camp roster this fall after taking part in the Sens' rookie camp. Another player who started 2024-25 with the Wild, Kenta Isogai, earned a training camp slot with the Los Angeles Kings after being picked up by the team's American Hockey League affiliate, the Ontario Reign, late in the summer.

DRAFT DAY:

The Wild landed on the National Hockey League draft board twice in late June, with one incoming Wenatchee player selected alongside an outgoing standout. Forward Blake Vanek was taken by the Ottawa Senators in the third round, at 93rd overall, after a memorable Minnesota high school season with the state runner-up Stillwater Ponies. Meanwhile, UConn commit Brendan Dunphy was picked in the seventh round at 207th overall by the Florida Panthers. The draft marked the first time since Zach Benson's first-round selection in 2023 that a player with Wenatchee ties had been selected in the NHL Draft.

TWO OF A KIND:

Two team award winners remain with the Wild for the 2025-26 season after starring for the club a year ago. Shaun Rios was selected as Wenatchee's Rookie of the Year in his first season out of Shattuck-St. Mary's prep school in Minnesota, racking up 21 goals and 26 assists in 42 games for the Wild, while Luka Shcherbyna won a public fan vote to earn Fan Favorite, behind 49 points of his own.

THE 700 CLUB:

Head coach Don Nachbaur is in his second year with the Wild reached the 700-win plateau in the WHL on November 20, 2024 against the Kelowna Rockets. Topping the WHL's all-time wins list is Don Hay, who won 750 games for Kamloops, Tri-City and Vancouver over 19 years, and is serving as associate coach of the Kelowna Rockets this season. Just behind Hay at 742 career wins is Ken Hodge, who spent 20 years as a WHL head coach with the original Edmonton Oil Kings and the Portland Winterhawks. Nachbaur is in his 21st season as a WHL head coach, spending all of that time with teams in Washington state. On November 14, he is set to break Ken Hodge's WHL record of 1,411 games coached.

THE NEW KID(S) IN TOWN:

Last year's extension of NCAA eligibility to Canadian Hockey League players immediately made the WHL the destination of choice for players from the western half of the United States, and the Wild took great advantage of that new talent pool – of the 25 players on the team's opening-day roster, 15 were brand-new to the WHL. Six of those players were from Minnesota alone, four of whom played in the Class AA state final. Two – Brandon Mickelson and Mason Kraft – played for the state champion Moorhead Spuds, while two others – Blake Vanek and Cal Conway – suited up for the runner-up Stillwater Ponies. In all, 10 current Wild players hail from the United States.

MILESTONE WATCH:

With this year's influx of new talent, only seven returning players had at least one WHL goal under their belts going into the year, and neither goaltender on the Wild roster had previously appeared in a WHL game. Luka Shcherbyna's 80 career points tops the current Wild career list, though three other players (Maddix McCagherty, Shaun Rios, Dawson Seitz) also have an inside track to reach the century mark this year. Seitz is the only player on the Wenatchee roster to have already played in 200 career games, though Josh Fluker would get there himself should he appear in 53 contests this year.

WENATCHEE'S ELEVEN:

11 players with ties to the Wild and ICE organizations began the 2025-26 season on National Hockey League rosters, headlined by Sam Reinhart, who led the Florida Panthers to their second straight Stanley Cup last season. All three first-rounders who joined the Wild upon the club's relocation to Wenatchee – Zach Benson, Conor Geekie and Matt Savoie – also started the season on an NHL roster, as did former Wild Junior "A" standouts Nic Dowd, Harrison Scott and Devin Cooley.

SEVENTEEN AGAIN:

The Wild are being represented in in-season international competition as Boston Tait heads to the World Under-17 Hockey Challenge, scheduled through Saturday in Truro, Nova Scotia. Tait is in his first full WHL season, and played six games last year with a pair of assists as a Wild affiliate player, and was one of 80 players named to Canada's U17 Program of Excellence camp in July.

THEIR STOCK IS RISING:

Three Wild players – Caelan Joudrey, Darian Rolsing and Tobias Tvrtznik, were selected for the NHL Central Scouting preliminary Players to Watch list on October 20. All received "C" ratings, indicating a likely fourth- or fifth-round selection in the 2026 NHL Draft.

DON NACHBAUR

HEAD COACH

The Wenatchee Wild are excited to welcome Don Nachbaur back to the Wild family for his second season as the team's head coach in 2025-26. He came to Wenatchee after serving the previous three seasons as an American Hockey League assistant coach in the Calgary Flames organization for the Calgary Wranglers & Stockton Heat.

A native of Kitimat, British Columbia, Nachbaur has built an extensive and decorated coaching resume following a 15-year professional playing career. Prior to moving into the pro ranks, he played two seasons in the WHL with the Billings Bighorns, scoring 67 goals and 146 points from 1977 to 1979. He still shares the WHL record with a five-goal playoff game in 1978. Nachbaur was selected by the Hartford Whalers in the third round of the 1979 National Hockey League draft and played in nearly 900 professional contests, including 223 NHL games for the Whalers, Edmonton Oilers and Philadelphia Flyers. He also claimed an AHL Calder Cup in 1988 as a member of the Hershey Bears.

During a 31-year coaching career, Nachbaur has guided teams at the highest levels of the sport, including eight seasons as an assistant in the NHL and AHL, and two years as a head coach in Europe. He is also a proven winner as a Western Hockey League head coach and is especially familiar with the league's U.S. Division, with 20 seasons of experience as a bench boss with the Seattle Thunderbirds, Tri-City Americans and Spokane Chiefs in addition to the Wild. The third-winningest head coach in WHL history, Nachbaur earned his 700th WHL victory November 20, 2024 at the Kelowna Rockets, and has earned three Dunc McCallum Memorial Trophies as the WHL's Coach of the Year – he is the only coach in Canadian Hockey League history to earn his league's Coach of the Year honors for three different CHL teams. He has also enjoyed international success behind the bench, serving as an assistant coach for Canada at the 2012 World Junior Championships, and winning gold as an assistant coach for the Canadian under-18 team at the 1999 Nations Cup and 2011 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament.

Nachbaur has family ties to the city of Wenatchee and the Wild organization, with son Daniel playing for the Wild in the British Columbia Hockey League in 2015-16 before embarking on a four-year NCAA playing career at UMass-Boston. Don and his wife Kim have two adult children, Sydney and Daniel.
