GAME NOTES - REGULAR SEASON GAME 24

WENATCHEE WILD

(8-13-1-1 - 18 pts || 12th, Western Conference)

SWIFT CURRENT BRONCOS

(8-16-1-0 - 17 pts || 11th, Eastern Conference)

December 2, 2025 || 6:00 p.m. || Town Toyota Center || Wenatchee, WA

Wild/ICE All-Time Record vs. Swift Current: 58-41-5-3 (2 ties)

IN A NUTSHELL:

Wenatchee wraps up a four-game homestand with its eye on a third win in seven days.

THE SCENE-SETTER:

After dropping a 3-0 decision to B.C. Division-leading Prince George on Friday, Wenatchee had its sights set on a quick rebound Saturday. They got it with a 6-1 win against Regina behind a mind-boggling six-goal second period that stretched the limits of the team's record book. Keets Fawcett tunneled a shot through with 4:17 left in the first period to send the Pats to the dressing room, but Josh Fluker started the outburst with a wrist shot from the right half at the 2:13 mark. Luka Shcherbyna drove the puck to the net and scored at 7:38 of the period, and with four seconds left on a power play at 12:17, Michal Capos ripped a shot down the slot for his first WHL goal. Maddix McCagherty bounced a shot off of Matthew Hutchison and in for a 4-1 lead with 5:06 remaining in the period, and Shcherbyna hammered home a pair of opportunities from the back post on the power play at 16:48 and 18:59. In all, the Wild closed out the night at 6-for-9 on special teams, including a 3-for-6 finish on the power play. Shcherbyna's hat trick led the way, but 11 players picked up at least one point for Wenatchee, including goaltender Tobias Tvrznik, who added an assist to his 25-save performance.

KNOW YOUR FOE:

Swift Current catches the Wild in the midst of a six-game stretch through the U.S. Division, and an overall eight-game road trip - the Broncos are trying to arrest an extended slide, after starting the year 6-3, with standings points in seven of their first 10. Portland snagged a 7-2 win over the Broncos, starting with three goals in the first 10-and-a-half minutes. Noah Kosick notched a goal with 4:45 to go in the first period, but by the end of the second period the Winterhawks had built the lead to as many as five goals, with two goals apiece from Ryan Miller and Nathan Brown. Anthony Wilson's power play goal with 3:27 left in the second period made it 6-2, before Nathan Free buried a Winterhawks goal at 3:42 on the man-advantage. Portland wrapped up the night at 2-for-4 on the power play, with an astounding 51 shots in the game. Though the Broncos have taken losses in 14 of 16, to their credit, they've been a tough team to solve in the close games, with a 5-2-1 record in one-goal finishes.

BOOK IT!:

The binding on the team's record book got a good workout during the second period of Saturday's game against Regina, coming up a single goal short of the 30-year WHL franchise's record for most goals in a period and most power play goals in one period. However, Luka Shcherbyna made history as the first player in franchise history to post a hat trick in a single period more than once - his first single-stanza hat trick also came against a Saskatchewan foe, in the third period of a February 4 visit to the Moose Jaw Warriors last season.

HITTING HARD AT HOME:

Being home for the holidays may be just what the doctor ordered as Wenatchee looks to gain a foothold in its climb up the standings - the Wild have won six of eight at home, with three of those wins against teams that were leading their divisions at the time. Their successful defense of home ice also allowed the Wild to finish November with a 6-6 record, their first .500 win in a single month since going 5-4-1-1 last November.

IN THE MIX WITH SIX:

Maddix McCagherty now has the team's top point streak this season after his goal and an assist Saturday night, posting a point in his sixth straight appearance. He had shared that honor with Luka Shcherbyna prior to Friday's loss to Prince George, a game in which McCagherty did not play.

TIP-TOP TOBY:

Tobias Tvrznik has been nothing if not consistent for Wenatchee in net, regardless of the outcome - his .920 save percentage is tied for third in the WHL, and his 2.88 goals-against average is 12th in the WHL despite facing more shots than all goaltenders above him other than Prince George's Joshua Ravensbergen. His save percentage has been at or above .900 in 13 of his 16 appearances this season, and his last eight in a row.

THIRD TIME'S THE CHARM:

The Wild organization has its eye on a return to the Western Hockey League playoffs in the Wenatchee Valley's third WHL season, after a near miss a year ago. Wenatchee closed out 2024-25 with a 23-36-8-1 record, taking ninth in the 11-team Western Conference, and did so following a second half with razor-thin margins - in their last 30 games, the Wild dropped 14 games by only a one- or two-goal margin, and went to overtime in five of six games at the middle of February. The team that caught them did so after catching fire in their second half - Seattle claimed the final playoff spot with 18 wins after January 10, including wins in six of their last eight games.

LET'S GO CAMPING:

Current Wenatchee player Blake Vanek earned a spot on the Ottawa Senators' training camp roster this fall after taking part in the Sens' rookie camp. Another player who started 2024-25 with the Wild, Kenta Isogai, earned a training camp slot with the Los Angeles Kings after being picked up by the team's American Hockey League affiliate, the Ontario Reign, late in the summer.

DRAFT DAY:

The Wild landed on the National Hockey League draft board twice in late June, with one incoming Wenatchee player selected alongside an outgoing standout. Forward Blake Vanek was taken by the Ottawa Senators in the third round, at 93rd overall, after a memorable Minnesota high school season with the state runner-up Stillwater Ponies. Meanwhile, UConn commit Brendan Dunphy was picked in the seventh round at 207th overall by the Florida Panthers. The draft marked the first time since Zach Benson's first-round selection in 2023 that a player with Wenatchee ties had been selected in the NHL Draft.

TWO OF A KIND:

One team award winner remains with the Wild for the 2025-26 season after starring for the club a year ago. Luka Shcherbyna won a public fan vote to earn Fan Favorite, behind 49 points, the team's leading returning scorer for 2025-26.

THE 700 CLUB:

Head coach Don Nachbaur is in his second year with the Wild, reaching the 700-win plateau in the WHL on November 20, 2024 against the Kelowna Rockets. Topping the WHL's all-time wins list is Don Hay, who won 752 games for Kamloops, Tri-City and Vancouver over 19 years, and is serving as associate coach of the Kelowna Rockets this season. Just behind Hay at 742 career wins is Ken Hodge, who spent 20 years as a WHL head coach with the original Edmonton Oil Kings and the Portland Winterhawks. Nachbaur is in his 21st season as a WHL head coach, spending all of that time with teams in Washington state. He became the WHL's longest-tenured coach on November 14, 2025, stepping behind the bench for his 1,412th game.

THE NEW KID(S) IN TOWN:

Last year's extension of NCAA eligibility to Canadian Hockey League players immediately made the WHL the destination of choice for players from the western half of the United States, and the Wild took great advantage of that new talent pool - of the 25 players on the team's opening-day roster, 15 were brand-new to the WHL. Six of those players were from Minnesota alone, four of whom played in the Class AA state final. Two - Brandon Mickelson and Mason Kraft - played for the state champion Moorhead Spuds, while two others - Blake Vanek and Cal Conway - suited up for the runner-up Stillwater Ponies. In all, 12 current Wild players hail from the United States.

MILESTONE WATCH:

With this year's influx of new talent, only seven returning players had at least one WHL goal under their belts going into the year, and neither goaltender on the Wild roster had previously appeared in a WHL game. Luka Shcherbyna's 90 career points tops the current Wild career list, though two other Wild players (Maddix McCagherty, Dawson Seitz) also have an inside track to reach the century mark this year. Seitz is the only player on the Wenatchee roster to have already played in 200 career games, though Josh Fluker would get there himself should he appear in 53 contests this year. McCagherty's next appearance will be the 150th in his WHL career.

WENATCHEE'S ELEVEN:

11 players with ties to the Wild and ICE organizations began the 2025-26 season on National Hockey League rosters, headlined by Sam Reinhart, who led the Florida Panthers to their second straight Stanley Cup last season. All three first-rounders who joined the Wild upon the club's relocation to Wenatchee - Zach Benson, Conor Geekie and Matt Savoie - also started the season on an NHL roster, as did former Wild Junior "A" standouts Nic Dowd, Harrison Scott and Devin Cooley.

SEVENTEEN AGAIN:

The Wild were represented in in-season international competition in early November as Boston Tait won gold at the World Under-17 Hockey Challenge in Truro, Nova Scotia. Tait is in his first full WHL season, and played six games last year with a pair of assists as a Wild affiliate player, and was one of 80 players named to Canada's U17 Program of Excellence camp in July.

THEIR STOCK IS RISING:

Three Wild players - Caelan Joudrey, Darian Rolsing and Tobias Tvrznik, were selected for the NHL Central Scouting preliminary Players to Watch list on October 20. All received "C" ratings, indicating a likely fourth- or fifth-round selection in the 2026 NHL Draft.

DON NACHBAUR

HEAD COACH

The Wenatchee Wild are excited to welcome Don Nachbaur back to the Wild family for his second season as the team's head coach in 2025-26. He came to Wenatchee after serving the previous three seasons as an American Hockey League assistant coach in the Calgary Flames organization for the Calgary Wranglers & Stockton Heat.

A native of Kitimat, British Columbia, Nachbaur has built an extensive and decorated coaching resume following a 15-year professional playing career. Prior to moving into the pro ranks, he played two seasons in the WHL with the Billings Bighorns, scoring 67 goals and 146 points from 1977 to 1979. He still shares the WHL record with a five-goal playoff game in 1978. Nachbaur was selected by the Hartford Whalers in the third round of the 1979 National Hockey League draft and played in nearly 900 professional contests, including 223 NHL games for the Whalers, Edmonton Oilers and Philadelphia Flyers. He also claimed an AHL Calder Cup in 1988 as a member of the Hershey Bears.

During a 31-year coaching career, Nachbaur has guided teams at the highest levels of the sport, including eight seasons as an assistant in the NHL and AHL, and two years as a head coach in Europe. He is also a proven winner as a Western Hockey League head coach and is especially familiar with the league's U.S. Division, with 20 seasons of experience as a bench boss with the Seattle Thunderbirds, Tri-City Americans and Spokane Chiefs in addition to the Wild. The longest-tenured and third-winningest head coach in WHL history, Nachbaur earned his 700th WHL victory November 20, 2024 at the Kelowna Rockets, and has earned three Dunc McCallum Memorial Trophies as the WHL's Coach of the Year - he is the only coach in Canadian Hockey League history to earn his league's Coach of the Year honors for three different CHL teams. He has also enjoyed international success behind the bench, serving as an assistant coach for Canada at the 2012 World Junior Championships, and winning gold as an assistant coach for the Canadian under-18 team at the 1999 Nations Cup and 2011 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament.

Nachbaur has family ties to the city of Wenatchee and the Wild organization, with son Daniel playing for the Wild in the British Columbia Hockey League in 2015-16 before embarking on a four-year NCAA playing career at UMass-Boston. Don and his wife Kim have two adult children, Sydney and Daniel.
