GAME NOTES - REGULAR SEASON GAME 50

WENATCHEE WILD

(18-26-3-2 - 41 pts || 11th, Western Conference)

VICTORIA ROYALS

(21-19-5-3 - 50 pts || 8th, Western Conference)

February 6, 2026 || 7:00 p.m. || Town Toyota Center || Wenatchee, WA
Wild/ICE All-Time Record vs. Victoria: 8-9-2-0 - 20th regular-season meeting

IN A NUTSHELL:

The Wild welcome Victoria for the first of their three get-togethers this month.

THE SCENE-SETTER:

Wenatchee battled throughout last Saturday's game against the Tri-City Americans, but faced one too many Ams power plays in a 3-2 overtime loss at Toyota Center in Kennewick. Luka Shcherbyna opened the scoring 3:55 in, just off the slot following a faceoff win from Caelan Joudrey and a setup pass from Mason Kraft. After going to the break down 1-0, the Ams tied the game on a power play goal from Savin Virk 78 seconds into the second period, and took the lead on a wraparound from Cruz Pavao with 9:04 to go in the period. Levi Benson tied the game on the power play with 7:49 to play, walking the puck to the front of the net and tossing it past Ryan Grout for a Wild power play marker. A Wenatchee penalty at 1:35 of the overtime period sent Tri-City to the power play one final time, and Grady Martin jammed a chance in underneath Tobias Tvrznik with 2:19 left in the extra session to close out the night. Martin and Virk each picked up a goal and an assist, and Tri-City finished 2-for-6 on the power play, while Wenatchee went 1-for-3. Grout nabbed his eighth win of the season behind 25 saves, and Tvrznik took the loss with 30 saves on 33 Ams chances.

KNOW YOUR FOE:

Victoria comes to Wenatchee amid a busy week, following a home split against the Kamloops Blazers on Tuesday and Wednesday - after taking an 11-1 thumping against the Royals on Tuesday, the Royals bounced back with a 4-1 win Wednesday behind multi-point games from Eli McKamey and Ludovic Perreault. McKamey and Odin Vauhkonen scored in the first period before Ty Coupland broke up the early shutout bid with 1:52 showing on the clock. Perreault potted his goal with 4:15 off the time in the second, and Ashton Brown buried an empty-netter with 1:42 to play in the third. Ethan Eskit made 19 saves in the win, as Victoria out-shot their visitors 35-20, while the two squads combined for a perfect 6-for-6 night on the kill. The Royals are nine points ahead of the Wild in the final Western Conference playoff spot, and have done it with the league's top goaltending workhorse in Ethan Eskit, who leads the league in minutes played. Power play opportunities are fewer and further between against the Royals as well - only Kamloops has logged fewer penalty minutes than the Royals.

PUTTING IN THE EXTRA HOURS:

Wenatchee put in some extra time on the ice in January, taking six games to overtime with three wins. It's the most overtime games in a single month for the WHL club since the Kootenay ICE went to the extra period in six games in October of 2018 - that group also won three of the six. Last year's team went to overtime five times in a six-game stretch in February, followed by another one March 1.

REMEMBER WHEN...:

This is the first battle between Wenatchee and Victoria since October 3, when the Wild erased a two-goal lead in the third period, but were forced to settle for a 5-4 loss on Hayden Moore's goal 82 seconds into overtime. Boston Tait highlighted the action with a pair of assists, while Caelan Joudrey and Luka Shcherbyna each notched goals - it was Wenatchee's only loss this season when scoring four or more goals. A total of three games between the Wild and Royals are slated for February, with two more set for February 20 and 21 in Victoria.

STRIKE ONE:

The Wild have shown up ready to play in recent times, scoring the first goal in three of their last four games and four of their last six. Oddly enough, the only win in Wenatchee's last seven outings came in come-from-behind fashion, erasing a two-goal deficit in the third period of last Friday's 3-2 overtime triumph at Portland.

THE BEST DEFENSE IS A GOOD OFFENSE:

Josh Toll tacked four assists on to his total last weekend at Portland and Tri-City, climbing to 36 points and maintaining his five-point team scoring lead. He is one of two defensemen leaguewide (Daxon Rudolph, Prince Albert) to lead his team in scoring, thanks to his seven multi-point games.

THIRD TIME'S THE CHARM:

The Wild organization has its eye on a return to the Western Hockey League playoffs in the Wenatchee Valley's third WHL season, after a near miss a year ago. Wenatchee closed out 2024-25 with a 23-36-8-1 record, taking ninth in the 11-team Western Conference, and did so following a second half with razor-thin margins – in their last 30 games, the Wild dropped 14 games by only a one- or two-goal margin, and went to overtime in five of six games at the middle of February. The team that caught them did so after catching fire in their second half – Seattle claimed the final playoff spot with 18 wins after January 10, including wins in six of their last eight games.

DRAFT DAY:

The Wild landed on the National Hockey League draft board twice in late June, with one incoming Wenatchee player selected alongside an outgoing standout. Blake Vanek started the season with the Wild after being taken by the Ottawa Senators in the third round, at 93rd overall, following a memorable Minnesota high school season with the state runner-up Stillwater Ponies. Meanwhile, UConn commit Brendan Dunphy was picked in the seventh round at 207th overall by the Florida Panthers. The draft marked the first time since Zach Benson's first-round selection in 2023 that a player with Wenatchee ties had been selected in the NHL Draft.

ONE OF A KIND:

One team award winner remains with the Wild for the 2025-26 season after starring for the club a year ago. Luka Shcherbyna won a public fan vote to earn Fan Favorite, behind 49 points, the team's leading returning scorer for 2025-26.

THE 700 CLUB:

Head coach Don Nachbaur is in his second year with the Wild, reaching the 700-win plateau in the WHL on November 20, 2024 against the Kelowna Rockets. Topping the WHL's all-time wins list is Don Hay, who won 752 games for Kamloops, Tri-City and Vancouver over 19 years, and is serving as associate coach of the Kelowna Rockets this season. Just behind Hay at 742 career wins is Ken Hodge, who spent 20 years as a WHL head coach with the original Edmonton Oil Kings and the Portland Winterhawks. Nachbaur is in his 21st season as a WHL head coach, spending all of that time with teams in Washington state. He became the WHL's longest-tenured coach on November 14, 2025, stepping behind the bench for his 1,412th game.

THE NEW KID(S) IN TOWN:

Last year's extension of NCAA eligibility to Canadian Hockey League players immediately made the WHL the destination of choice for players from the western half of the United States, and the Wild took great advantage of that new talent pool – of the 25 players on the team's opening-day roster, 15 were brand-new to the WHL. Six of those players were from Minnesota alone, four of whom played in the Class AA state final. Two – Brandon Mickelson and Mason Kraft – played for the state champion Moorhead Spuds, while two others – Blake Vanek and Cal Conway – suited up for the runner-up Stillwater Ponies. In all, 10 current full-time Wild players hail from the U.S.

MILESTONE WATCH:

With this year's influx of new talent, only seven returning players had at least one WHL goal under their belts going into the year, and neither goaltender on the Wild roster had previously appeared in a WHL game. Luka Shcherbyna reached the 100-point mark for his WHL career January 11 at Vancouver, and reached the 150-game mark in his WHL career on December 12 against Tri-City. Caelan Joudrey hit the 100-game mark on December 7 at Calgary, while Zane Saab played in his 150th WHL game January 30 at Portland.

WENATCHEE'S ELEVEN:

11 players with ties to the Wild and ICE organizations began the 2025-26 season on National Hockey League rosters, headlined by Sam Reinhart, who led the Florida Panthers to their second straight Stanley Cup last season. All three NHL first-rounders who joined the Wild upon the club's relocation to Wenatchee – Zach Benson, Conor Geekie and Matt Savoie – also started the season on an NHL roster, as did former Wild Junior "A" standouts Nic Dowd, Harrison Scott and Devin Cooley.

AN INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR:

In early November, Boston Tait won gold at the World Under-17 Hockey Challenge in Truro, Nova Scotia – Tait is in his first full WHL season, and played six games last year with a pair of assists as a Wild affiliate player. Michal Capos was also selected for international play this season, helping the Slovaks reach the quarterfinals at the 2026 World Junior Championships in Minnesota.

PULLING RANK:

Three Wild players – Caelan Joudrey, Darian Rolsing and Tobias Tvrtznik, were chosen for the NHL Central Scouting midterm rankings on January 12 – Tvrtznik was ranked fifth among draft-eligible goalies playing in North America, and second among WHL netminders. Joudrey was ranked 101st among North American skaters, while Rolsing was placed 158th. All three were also picked for the preliminary Players to Watch list on October 20. All received "C" ratings, indicating a likely fourth- or fifth-round selection in the 2026 NHL Draft.

THEIR PROSPECTS ARE GOOD:

The WHL recently announced its Prospects Game rosters, with Tobias Tvrtznik earning an invitation as the league's second-ranked goalie ahead of the NHL Draft this June. Caelan Joudrey was selected as the 101st-ranked North American skater on the NHL Central Scouting midterm rankings.

DON NACHBAUR

HEAD COACH

The Wenatchee Wild are excited to welcome Don Nachbaur back to the Wild family for his second season as the team's head coach in 2025-26. He came to Wenatchee after serving the previous three seasons as an American Hockey League assistant coach in the Calgary Flames organization for the Calgary Wranglers & Stockton Heat.

A native of Kitimat, British Columbia, Nachbaur has built an extensive and decorated coaching resume following a 15-year professional playing career. Prior to moving into the pro ranks, he played two seasons in the WHL with the Billings Bighorns, scoring 67 goals and 146 points from 1977 to 1979. He still shares the WHL record with a five-goal playoff game in 1978. Nachbaur was selected by the Hartford Whalers in the third round of the 1979 National Hockey League draft and played in nearly 900 professional contests, including 223 NHL games for the Whalers, Edmonton Oilers and Philadelphia Flyers. He also claimed an AHL Calder Cup in 1988 as a member of the Hershey Bears.

During a 31-year coaching career, Nachbaur has guided teams at the highest levels of the sport, including eight seasons as an assistant in the NHL and AHL, and two years as a head coach in Europe. He is also a proven winner as a Western Hockey League head coach and is especially familiar with the league's U.S. Division, with 20 seasons of experience as a bench boss with the Seattle Thunderbirds, Tri-City Americans and Spokane Chiefs in addition to the Wild. The longest-tenured and third-winningest head coach in WHL history, Nachbaur earned his 700th WHL victory November 20, 2024 at the Kelowna Rockets, and has earned three Dunc McCallum Memorial Trophies as the WHL's Coach of the Year – he is the only coach in Canadian Hockey League history to earn his league's Coach of the Year honors for three different CHL teams. He has also enjoyed international success behind the bench, serving as an assistant coach for Canada at the 2012 World Junior Championships, and winning gold as an assistant coach for the Canadian under-18 team at the 1999 Nations Cup and 2011 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament.

Nachbaur has family ties to the city of Wenatchee and the Wild organization, with son Daniel playing for the Wild in the British Columbia Hockey League in 2015-16 before embarking on a four-year NCAA playing career at UMass-Boston. Don and his wife Kim have two adult children, Sydney and Daniel.
