GAME NOTES - REGULAR SEASON GAME 60

WENATCHEE WILD

(23-31-3-2 - 51 pts || 11th, Western Conference)

EVERETT SILVERTIPS

(49-7-2-1 - 101 pts || 1st, Western Conference)

March 1, 2026 || 4:00 p.m. || Town Toyota Center || Wenatchee, WA
Wild/ICE All-Time Record vs. Everett: 16-23-2-1 (1 tie) – 44th regular-season meeting

IN A NUTSHELL:

Wenatchee wraps up a three-in-three weekend with its heaviest test yet: the Scotty Munro Memorial Trophy favorites.

THE SCENE-SETTER:

After falling behind 2-1 going to the final period Saturday against the Kelowna Rockets, the Wild ran away to a 6-2 victory, sealing a split in the season series. Zane Saab drove the net for the opening goal 5:07 into the game, but Rowan Guest's toss from the left point was tipped in by Ryan Othoudt with less than two minutes left in the period to tie it. Tij Iginla found Ty Halaburda out front for a goal 37 seconds into the second period, but Caelan Joudrey tied the contest 2:33 into the third. Sam Elliott put the Wild in front to stay at 6:06, and with 5:35 remaining, Mathias Silaban found Riley Bassen out front for a one-timer and a two-goal advantage. Wenatchee extended the lead two more times, as Aiden Grossklaus wired a shot to the top of the cage with 2:48 remaining, and Levi Benson found Drew Smith on the weak side for his first WHL goal 57 seconds later. Elliott led the way with a goal and two assists, and Josh Toll fed his teammates to the tune of three assists, while Tobias Tvrznic racked up 29 assists to earn his 16th win of the season. Both penalty-killing units went 2-for-2 in the game.

KNOW YOUR FOE:

The Everett Silvertips have won four in a row, after going to Seattle last night and holding off the Thunderbirds for a 3-2 overtime victory – Seattle led 1-0 going to the third period on the basis of Noah Kosick's goal 7:13 into the game. Most of the scoring in the game would follow, as Julius Miettinen deposited the puck to tie the game 85 seconds into the third. Matej Pekar scored to untie the game 18 seconds later, but Carter Bear would find the next equalizer on the power play at 5:48. With 1:55 remaining in overtime, Miettinen scored again to deliver the Silvertips the win. Matias Vanhanen had assists on all three Everett goals, while Landon DuPont posted a pair of helpers. Everett out-shot their hosts 44-26, throwing 20 chances on the net in the second period alone. The Silvertips bring the league's highest-paced offense, at over 42 shots on goal per game, and Anders Miller and Raiden LeGall make up the WHL's most reliable goaltending duo, with two of the circuit's top five averages in net. Though Vanhanen is the only scorer in the WHL's top 15, four Silvertips come in with at least 60 points, and two more are knocking at the door. Everett arguably comes on stronger as the game goes on, with an 84-44 scoring margin in the third period and an 8-3 record in overtime and shootouts.

PLAYOFF PICTURE:

Wenatchee remains nine points back of a Western Conference playoff spot with nine games to play. Portland and Victoria are tied for seventh with 60 points apiece, with Kamloops four points ahead in sixth place, and Tri-City four points back of a playoff spot in ninth.

THE APPLE CAPITAL:

Josh Toll's three points on Saturday gave him a commanding eight-point lead on Luka Shcherbyna in the race for the Wenatchee scoring title – Toll and Prince Albert defenseman Daxon Rudolph are the only WHL blueliners to lead their teams in scoring. Toll raced past the 40-assist plateau last night, and is approaching Reid Andresen's team-best total of 44 assists from a year ago. Saturday was his fifth three-point game with the Wild, and fourth three-assist night.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL:

Wenatchee's five-goal third period Saturday was its third five-goal stanza of the season, with both of the previous two coming in the second period. The last five-goal third period for the Wild came on March 8, 2024 in an 8-1 road rout of the Tri-City Americans,

TOBY TERRIFIC:

Tobias Tvrznic tallied his 16th win of the season on Saturday, putting him within one of the high-water mark for Wenatchee's WHL era – Brendan Gee and Daniel Hauser both notched 17 wins during the 2023-24 Wild campaign, guiding the club to a fourth-place Western Conference finish. Gee led last year's team with 11 victories.

THIRD TIME'S THE CHARM:

The Wild organization has its eye on a return to the Western Hockey League playoffs in the Wenatchee Valley's third WHL season, after a near miss a year ago. Wenatchee closed out 2024-25 with a 23-36-8-1 record, taking ninth in the 11-team Western Conference, and did so following a second half with razor-thin margins - in their last 30 games, the Wild dropped 14 games by only a one- or two-goal margin, and went to overtime in five of six games at the middle of February. The team that caught them did so after catching fire in their second half - Seattle claimed the final playoff spot with 18 wins after January 10, including wins in six of their last eight games.

DRAFT DAY:

The Wild landed on the National Hockey League draft board twice in late June, with one incoming Wenatchee player selected alongside an outgoing standout. Blake Vanek started the season with the Wild after being taken by the Ottawa Senators in the third round, at 93rd overall, following a memorable Minnesota high school season with the state runner-up Stillwater Ponies. Meanwhile, UConn commit Brendan Dunphy was picked in the seventh round at 207th overall by the Florida Panthers. The draft marked the first time since Zach Benson's first-round selection in 2023 that a player with Wenatchee ties had been selected in the NHL Draft.

ONE OF A KIND:

One team award winner remains with the Wild for the 2025-26 season after starring for the club a year ago. Luka Shcherbyna won a public fan vote to earn Fan Favorite, behind 49 points, the team's leading returning scorer for 2025-26.

THE 700 CLUB:

Head coach Don Nachbaur is in his second year with the Wild, reaching the 700-win plateau in the WHL on November 20, 2024 against the Kelowna Rockets. Topping the WHL's all-time wins list is Don Hay, who won 752 games for Kamloops, Tri-City and Vancouver over 19 years, and is serving as associate coach of the Kelowna Rockets this season. Just behind Hay at 742 career wins is Ken Hodge, who spent 20 years as a WHL head coach with the original Edmonton Oil Kings and the Portland Winterhawks. Nachbaur is in his 21st season as a WHL head coach, spending all of that time with teams in Washington state. He became the WHL's longest-tenured coach on November 14, 2025, stepping behind the bench for his 1,412th game.

THE NEW KID(S) IN TOWN:

Last year's extension of NCAA eligibility to Canadian Hockey League players immediately made the WHL the destination of choice for players from the western half of the United States, and the Wild took great advantage of that new talent pool - of the 25 players on the team's opening-day roster, 15 were brand-new to the WHL. Six of those players were from Minnesota alone, four of whom played in the Class AA state final. Two - Brandon Mickelson and Mason Kraft - played for the state champion Moorhead Spuds, while two others - Blake Vanek and Cal Conway - suited up for the runner-up Stillwater Ponies. In all, 10 current full-time Wild players hail from the U.S.

MILESTONE WATCH:

With this year's influx of new talent, only seven returning players had at least one WHL goal under their belts going into the year, and neither goaltender on the Wild roster had previously appeared in a WHL game. Luka Shcherbyna reached the 100-point mark for his WHL career January 11 at Vancouver, and reached the 150-game mark in his WHL career on December 12 against Tri-City. Caelan Joudrey hit the 100-game mark on December 7 at Calgary, and Levi Benson earned his 100th on February 14 at Spokane, while Zane Saab played in his 150th WHL game January 30 at Portland.

WENATCHEE'S ELEVEN:

11 players with ties to the Wild and ICE organizations began the 2025-26 season on National Hockey League rosters, headlined by Sam Reinhart, who led the Florida Panthers to their second straight Stanley Cup last season. All three NHL first-rounders who joined the Wild upon the club's relocation to Wenatchee - Zach Benson, Conor Geekie and Matt Savoie - also started the season on an NHL roster, as did former Wild Junior "A" standouts Nic Dowd, Harrison Scott and Devin Cooley.

AN INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR:

In early November, Boston Tait won gold at the World Under-17 Hockey Challenge in Truro, Nova Scotia - Tait is in his first full WHL season, and played six games last year with a pair of assists as a Wild affiliate player. Michal Capos was also selected for international play this season, helping the Slovaks reach the quarterfinals at the 2026 World Junior Championships in Minnesota.

PULLING RANK:

Three Wild players - Caelan Joudrey, Darian Rolsing and Tobias Tvrznik, were chosen for the NHL Central Scouting midterm rankings on January 12 - Tvrznik was ranked fifth among draft-eligible goalies playing in North America, and second among WHL netminders. Joudrey was ranked 101st among North American skaters, while Rolsing was placed 158th. All three were also picked for the preliminary Players to Watch list on October 20. All received "C" ratings, indicating a likely fourth- or fifth-round selection in the 2026 NHL Draft.

THEIR PROSPECTS ARE GOOD:

Caelan Joudrey and Darian Rolsing competed in the WHL Prospects Game presented by Showpass on February 18, with Joudrey logging an assist, while Tobias Tvrznik was forced out due to injury. All three are on the NHL Central Scouting midterm rankings list.

DON NACHBAUR

HEAD COACH

The Wenatchee Wild are excited to welcome Don Nachbaur back to the Wild family for his second season as the team's head coach in 2025-26. He came to Wenatchee after serving the previous three seasons as an American Hockey League assistant coach in the Calgary Flames organization for the Calgary Wranglers & Stockton Heat.

A native of Kitimat, British Columbia, Nachbaur has built an extensive and decorated coaching resume following a 15-year professional playing career. Prior to moving into the pro ranks, he played two seasons in the WHL with the Billings Bighorns, scoring 67 goals and 146 points from 1977 to 1979. He still shares the WHL record with a five-goal playoff game in 1978. Nachbaur was selected by the Hartford Whalers in the third round of the 1979 National Hockey League draft and played in nearly 900 professional contests, including 223 NHL games for the Whalers, Edmonton Oilers and Philadelphia Flyers. He also claimed an AHL Calder Cup in 1988 as a member of the Hershey Bears.

During a 31-year coaching career, Nachbaur has guided teams at the highest levels of the sport, including eight seasons as an assistant in the NHL and AHL, and two years as a head coach in Europe. He is also a proven winner as a Western Hockey League head coach and is especially familiar with the league's U.S. Division, with 20 seasons of experience as a bench boss with the Seattle Thunderbirds, Tri-City Americans and Spokane Chiefs in addition to the Wild. The longest-tenured and third-winningest head coach in WHL history, Nachbaur earned his 700th WHL victory November 20, 2024 at the Kelowna Rockets, and has earned three Dunc McCallum Memorial Trophies as the WHL's Coach of the Year - he is the only coach in Canadian Hockey League history to earn his league's Coach of the Year honors for three different CHL teams. He has also enjoyed international success behind the bench, serving as an assistant coach for Canada at the 2012 World Junior Championships, and winning gold as an assistant coach for the Canadian under-18 team at the 1999 Nations Cup and 2011 Ivan Hlinka Memorial Tournament.

Nachbaur has family ties to the city of Wenatchee and the Wild organization, with son Daniel playing for the Wild in the British Columbia Hockey League in 2015-16 before embarking on a four-year NCAA playing career at UMass-Boston. Don and his wife Kim have two adult children, Sydney and Daniel.
