WILD/ICE ALL-TIME REGULAR SEASON RECORD VS. EVERETT: 18-27-2-1 (1 TIE) - 50TH REGULAR-SEASON MEETING

IN A NUTSHELL:

The Wild wrap up a nine-game homestand with a visit from a U.S. Division rival.

THE SCENE-SETTER:

Sunday evening, another outstanding night from the Wenatchee special teams wasn't able to overcome a stingy Victoria Royals defense, as the Royals won a 5-2 decision over the Wild at Town Toyota Center. Caleb Matthews picked up his first two-goal game of the season, including a back-post tap-in 63 seconds into the game, and Nolan Stewart had a goal and two assists to pace the Victoria offense. Boston Tait scored a power play goal in his second straight game, and Kalen Miles returned to the score sheet with a goal of his own, while Tobias Tvrznik stopped 36 of 40 Royals shots. Wenatchee finished 2-for-5 on the power play while denying all three of Victoria's chances on the man-advantage.

KNOW YOUR FOE:

Everett is poised to spend some extra time at home in the near future, after finishing a remarkable 11-game, monthlong road trip. The Medicine Hat Tigers overwhelmed the Silvertips 5-2 at Angel of the Winds Arena last night, scoring three goals in the first period, and getting two goals and an assist from Luke Cozens - Jaxsin Vaughan and Dario Blengino handled the scoring for the 'Tips. Everett won just three games on its 11-game stretch away from home, but its defense remains one of the league's most stout, allowing just three goals a night, and the group continues to show a stronger scoring punch late in games. They also reacquired 18-year-old forward Caine Wilke from Calgary last month, after a 43-point season last year with the Hitmen.

OVERPOWERING:

Wenatchee's last 120 minutes have been its best in a long time on the power play, scoring on five of the club's last 10 opportunities with the extra man. Going into last Friday's win against the Prince George Cougars, the Wild were sitting at just under 13 percent on the power play, but the recent stretch has vaulted the Wild up eight full percentage points. It's the first set of back-to-back games with multiple power play goals since a February 11-13 set against the Kelowna Rockets last season. Not to be outdone, the penalty kill had its first perfect night since October 16, and enters the weekend with the league's best mark.

TURNING ON THE HEAT:

No Wild player has been hotter over the last three weeks than veteran newcomer Ty Coupland - since coming over in a trade from the Kamloops Blazers in mid-October, Coupland has not gone without a point in any contest, becoming the first Wenatchee player this year to extend a point streak to six games. Friday's three-point game against Prince George was his first of the year and the ninth of his WHL career.

Back 4 More:

The Wild organization has its eye on a return to the Western Hockey League playoffs in the Wenatchee Valley's fourth WHL season, after near misses the last two springs. Wenatchee closed out 2025-26 with a 25-38-3-2 record, taking 10th in the 11-team Western Conference. There were plenty of bright spots, including an 81.8-percent penalty kill, which tied with Penticton for the league's best mark and topped the WHL for the first time in the organization's history. The Wild won their close games, going 11-5-3-2 in one-goal contests - Wenatchee's magic number on offense was four, going 17-3-1-0 when lighting the lamp four times or more.

Colorado Comes Calling:

The Wild landed on the National Hockey League draft board again this past June, with goaltender Tobias Tvrznik earning a fourth-round selection from the Colorado Avalanche at 126th overall. His selection marked the first one for a goaltender in the organization since Winnipeg ICE netminder Gage Alexander went to the Anaheim Ducks in the fifth round of the 2021 draft.

Doubling Up:

Two team award winners remain with the Wild for the 2026-27 season after starring for the club a year ago, including one who doubled his hardware haul. Tobias Tvrznik won both the team's Rookie of the Year and Most Valuable Player honors, finishing the regular season with a .913 save percentage, good for third on the league leaderboard. He did all of that while facing the ninth-most shots in the league, and picked up his first WHL shutout February 6 in a 2-0 defeat of the Victoria Royals. Mathias Silaban was named the team's Most Improved Player, posting his first goal November 14 at the Portland Winterhawks, and logging his first multi-point game by adding an assist that night. By the end of the season, he was one of 10 players to reach the 20-point mark with the Wild.

To the Mountaintop:

Head coach Don Nachbaur is nearing WHL history as the season gets underway, coming into the year with 740 career wins, good for third-most all-time. Just 12 above that is all-time leader Don Hay, who won 752 games for Kamloops, Tri-City and Vancouver over 19 years as a WHL head coach. Just behind Hay at 742 career wins is Ken Hodge, who spent 20 years as a WHL head coach with the original Edmonton Oil Kings and the Portland Winterhawks. Nachbaur is in his 22nd season as a WHL head coach, spending all of that time with teams in Washington state. He became the WHL's longest-tenured coach on November 14, 2025, passing Hodge by stepping behind the bench for his 1,412th game.

I'm Only Gonna Count to Five:

The club is welcoming two top-five WHL draft picks to the roster this season, the highest draft picks that the WHL organization has enjoyed since taking Matthew Savoie and Conor Geekie first and second in the 2019 Prospects Draft. Forward Parker McMillan went to Wenatchee with the second overall pick, after scoring 91 points in 25 games for the Canadian Sport School Hockey League's Yale Hockey Academy U15 Prep team - he was named the U15 Prep division's Most Valuable Player and Top Forward. Jevin Morrison was chosen fifth overall out of the Red Deer Rebels AAA club, rolling up 64 points in 24 Alberta Elite Hockey League games. That total led all AEHL U15 blueliners, and earned him a spot on the division's First All-Star Team.

The Young and the Restless:

Wenatchee will feature a young and exciting lineup in 2026-27, with both McMillan and Morrison on the opening night roster. They'll be joined by five 16-year-olds, four of whom are newcomers to the Wild lineup. That follows a 2025-26 season that saw the club dress two 16-year-olds on the blue line in 36 of their 68 games - in three of those games, the Wenatchee blue line featured three 2009-born players.

Familiar Faces:

After a season in which Wenatchee started with only seven skaters who had scored a WHL goal and two fresh faces at goaltender, this year's group is chock full of returners - six of the nine defensemen on the opening-night roster have WHL experience, and of the 14 forwards on the season-opening roster, only four have never appeared in a WHL game. Of those seven newcomers to the league, six are either 15 or 16 years old.

Pair of Pros:

Two players on Wenatchee's roster appeared at National Hockey League rookie camps ahead of this season - Tobias Tvrznik earned a spot in the Colorado Avalanche training camp after being selected in the NHL Draft in June, while forward Caelan Joudrey earned an invite to New Jersey Devils rookie camp. A Quinnipiac University commit, Joudrey finished with 19 goals and 10 assists last season and posted three multi-point games, including a pair of multi-goal games.

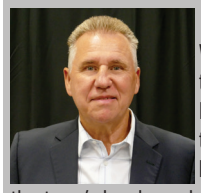

Gold Retriever:

Boston Tait won gold over the summer at the Hlinka Gretzky Cup in Edmonton, Alberta, widely considered a sneak preview of draft-eligible players ahead of the following year's NHL Draft. Tait helped Team Canada to its 26th gold medal at the tournament, posting first-period assists in all three of Canada's group-stage games. He also served as an alternate captain for Canada Red's run to the gold medal at the World Under-17 Hockey Challenge last season.

Do You Feel a Draft?:

Two Wenatchee players earned spots on NHL Central Scouting's preliminary "Players to Watch" list - defenseman Boston Tait earned a "B" rating, indicating a likely second- or third-round selection in the 2027 NHL Draft, and goaltender Carsten Leyerzapf was noted with a "W" rating, as a likely sixth- or seventh-round selection in next summer's draft. It was the second straight year that Wenatchee had a goaltender on the preliminary watch list, after Tobias Tvrznik earned a "C" rating last year before going to Colorado in the fourth round.

HEAD COACH
DON NACHBAUR

The Wenatchee Wild are excited to welcome Don Nachbaur back to the Wild family for his third season as the team's head coach in 2026-27. Nachbaur came to Wenatchee after serving for the past three seasons as an American Hockey League assistant coach in the Calgary Flames organization, most recently for the Calgary Wranglers and previously the Stockton Heat.

A native of Kitimat, British Columbia, Nachbaur has built an extensive and decorated coaching resume following a 15-year professional playing career. Prior to moving into the pro ranks, he played two seasons in the WHL with the Billings Bighorns, scoring 67 goals and 146 points from 1977 to 1979. He still shares the WHL record with a five-goal playoff game in 1978. Nachbaur was selected by the Hartford Whalers in the third round of the 1979 National Hockey League draft and played in nearly 900 professional contests, including 223 NHL games for the Whalers, Edmonton Oilers and Philadelphia Flyers. He also claimed an AHL Calder Cup in 1988 as a member of the Hershey Bears.

Over a 32-year coaching career, Nachbaur has guided teams at the highest levels of the sport, including eight seasons as an assistant in the NHL and AHL, and two years as a head coach in Europe. He is also a proven winner as a Western Hockey League head coach and is especially familiar with the league's U.S. Division, with 20 seasons of experience as a bench boss with the Seattle Thunderbirds, Tri-City Americans and Spokane Chiefs, in addition to the Wild. The third-winningest head coach in WHL history, Nachbaur earned his 700th WHL victory November 20, 2024 at the Kelowna Rockets, and has earned three Dunc McCallum Memorial Trophies as the WHL's Coach of the Year – he is the only coach in Canadian Hockey League history to earn Coach of the Year honors for three different CHL teams. He has also enjoyed international success behind the bench, serving as an assistant coach for Canada at the 2013 World Junior Championships, and winning gold at international competitions as an assistant coach for the Canadian under-18 team.

Nachbaur has family ties to the city of Wenatchee and the Wild organization, with son Daniel playing for the Wild in the British Columbia Hockey League during the 2015-16 season before embarking on a four-year NCAA playing career at UMass-Boston. Don and his wife Kim have two adult children, Sydney and Daniel.
